

HOT PENNIES DAY

Pictures from Past to Present

PART 1

Year not known

Empire Day - not Hot Pennies - but interesting all the same!

Coronation Day

Can anyone shed any light on this one?

In 2010 the shop in the background with the awnings with the arches is now The Bed Expert, owned by Peter Betteridge.

THE GLOVE IS UP Taken in 1896 when the town crier was Mr. F. Clarke. It will be noticed that the shop now used by Mr. Warren was then occupied by Mr. Catford, Harness-maker, and the room above it was the reading-room of the Heniton Literary Institute.

It is not clear what is happening here.

Possibly a remembrance service or other solemn affair

If you can identify anyone do let us know.

Year unknown
- but "The glove
is up"

Can you identify anyone?
